

"The Midterm, Incident"

Press Kit

Synopsis (75 words)

The curse of the misplaced comma! Jeremy must thwart both his professor and his beautiful nemesis Jessica to swap out his midterm in this hilarious spoof of action thrillers. Will Jeremy be successful? Probably. Will he and Jessica find love amongst the dangers in the professor's office? Kinda seems likely. Will you laugh out loud? Yes, you will.

Director's Statement

"The Midterm, Incident" started as a simple in-class project for my editing students to work on, and became much, much more. We were so happy with how the footage turned out that I had one of my students complete an edit, then got the UCA Jazz Band to play the awesome score written by Paul Dickinson. Every step was just a fun time, and I think the proof is in the pudding – we ended up with a really fun film that I hope everyone enjoys!

Director's Bio

Joe Dull is the writer and director of the award winning feature film "Table at Luigi's," produced by the faculty and students at the University of Central Arkansas. He's been directing and editing films for 20 years in Southern California and New York, but it took moving to Arkansas to helm his first feature.

Teaching for five years at Chapman University in Orange, CA, and now at the University of Central Arkansas in Conway, Joe is proud whenever he can bring his love of film and his love of teaching together, both in the classroom and by involving his students in professional productions.

Joe can be seen here with his favorite production, one-year old Emma.
